

Course (LDRS...)	Title	Stream	Description	Pre-Req	Program Outcomes	Course Outcomes	Ways of Knowing	SLO
501	Leadership Foundations	Core	This introductory course provides an understanding of the philosophical and theoretical basis for leadership, including the participant's stage of development. Major historical models for leadership are examined with special attention to servant leadership, and participants examine ways of improving their own leadership skills through practical interactive group exercises.	Admission to Program
502
503
504
591
612
614
617
620
623
624
625
626
627
631
634
646
647
651
654
697
698								